Release Schedule Modified for 2302

UPDATE: 2302 release date for the SAP Procurement and SAP Business Network

Following consistent customer feedback related to the close proximity of the Next-Generation Cloud Delivery migration for the North America SAP Procurement solutions and global SAP Business Network product release, SAP has decided to modify the original planned release date for the SAP Procurement and SAP Business Network 2302 product release. The planned general availability date for will be changed from Friday, February 17 to Friday, March 17, 2023. We will communicate the planned release date on January 27. At that time, all release materials will also be available from the Release Readiness area of SAP Ariba Connect. This will provide you an extended timeframe to review the release materials and conduct your readiness preparations for the release.

Please visit this FAQ for additional details.

Important reminders Cross product topics
