Customer challenge

Current custom form capabilities do not allow for tagging of forms for easy organization.

Meet that challenge with SAP Ariba

The easiest way to keep your forms organized, especially if you have a large number of forms, is to use tag your forms. As a form designer, you can now add tags while designing form templates. This feature will allow you to add as many as 5 tags to each of your forms in order to make it easier to find the form you are looking for. All custom forms will be returned in search results that find these tags.

Experience key benefits

Tags are a great way to organize your custom forms. You can configure tags to be displayed on your forms, and can easily search and filter by tag Using tags, customers can consolidate and view their form data in one place.
