

Configuring your Supplier account for Punchout – Native cXML Transaction Setup

- This option refers to the account level Default Authentication. This option would be used for all cXML transactional documents across all customers.

- To access this authentication setup:
  - Click your initials
  - Select Settings
  - Click Electronic Order Routing

